The little son of Chas. Thompson is better.

This is the 10th; it used to be pay day at the V. & T. Shops.

A report is being circulated in Carson that Spring has arrived.

A small blaze in the rear of Kitzmeyer's store caused the alarm yesterday.

Sixteen lives were lost by the burning of a Milwaukee theater yesterday.

Miss Lottie Gladding, formerly of this city, passed through to Virginia Sunday.

John G. Fox has just received a supply of the latest styles of wall paper. Inspect them.

The latest report from the Health jury is that they stand eleven to one, but it is not known which way.

An alarm of fire caused quite an excitement in the APPEAL office yesterday. Thought it meant a good item. It turned out to be a false alarm.

Silver advanced a few cents an ounce last week and wheat followed it. The latter went up to 66½ cents per bushel in New York, the highest point reached for some time.

The Empire Wood Heavers beat the Carson Wind Fanners in a baseball game Sunday by a score of 240 to 180. The purse of $10 was expended in buying a croquet set.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of Abe Cohn, elsewhere. By patronizing home merchants you keep the money in circulation where you can get another whack at it.

Mrs. V. K. McMillan, of St. Louis, Mo., is in this city on a visit to her brother A. T. Kramer (who has recently gone blind) whom she has not seen for over thirty years.

A big crowd will get up from here Wednesday night to Virginia, the occasion being the presentation of the "The Spider and the Fly." The round trip will cost you but a dollar. Orchestra chairs 75 cents.

In Justice Hawthorne's Court yesterday morning Ruby King was found guilty of disturbing the peace and fined $21, which she paid. "Bill Bass," an Indian, was sent to jail for 7½ days for being drunk and disorderly.

A woman of the town, known as Gertie, took morphine with suicidal intent last evening but was pumped out by Dr. Guinan in time to prevent a funeral. The morphine route out of Carson is not regarded as infallible any more.

There is a proposition on foot to build a woolen mill in Reno, says the Reno Journal. A committee has been appointed to canvas public sentiment in regard to the matter and to call a public meeting if thought desirable Monday evening. It is hoped that the plan will materialize. What Reno needs is manufacturing to make her people prosperous.

Miss Hadley French who has been attending the University for the past two years, yesterday returned to her home in Carson. Circumstances over which she has no control will necessitate her severing her connection with that institution possibly permanently. She leaves a large circle of friends who regret her departure.—Journal.

The Arizona blacksmith, T. J. Partridge, who created such a sensation in a Los Angeles court a few days ago by promising the large sum of $13,500 while undergoing an examination for insanity, is declared to be only in need of rest and proper sustenance. For the past fifteen years he has been a hard working man, hoarding every cent he earned and almost starving himself, which unbalanced his mind.

A few Wheeler & Wilson improved No. 9 sewing machines will be sold very cheap at Golden's. m24

The Eggleston Murder.

The preliminary examination of O. H. Strickland and wife, for the murder of Mrs. Eggleston at Antelope, resulted in their discharge, there being no evidence on which to hold them for trial. Now the question is, Who is guilty of the brutal murder? The Supervisors have offered a reward of $300 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer, and the Governor has been asked to offer $200.—Bodie Miner.

Step into the Ormsby and get a Tampico cigar.

Death of Geo. S. Hawkins.

Geo. S. Hawkins, the well-known artisan well-known and former Public Administrator and Coroner of Ormsby county, who has been ill with quick consumption for nearly a year, died while en route home from Monrovia, Los Angeles county, where he had been for several months. The death occurred at the Summit about 6 o'clock Monday morning, and a brother and his wife were with him when his spirit took its flight.

Deceased being a member of Car Lodge No. 4, K. of P. and Ormsby Lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W., a committee representing the two lodges met the remains at the depot yesterday and escorted them and the widow to the family home.

Deceased was a native of Great Salt Lake City, Utah, and aged 41 years and 11 months. He leaves to mourn his loss a devoted wife and a little daughter; an aged and loving mother, four brothers and a sister, Mrs. Kinsey of Genoa. His family is left well provided for, he being a member of the K. of P. Endowment Rank and Ormsby Lodge A. O. U. W. From the former the widow will receive $3000 and from the latter $2000.—Tribune.

For City Trustees.

In accordance with the Australian ballot law, a petition signed by the necessary ten per cent of the votes cast at the last city election, was filed with the County Clerk on Saturday, nominating the following citizens, representative of Republican principles, for City Trustees at the election set for May 5th:

For Trustee at Large Dwight Edwards.
 For Trustees of First Ward—A. M. Ardery and C. H. Maish.
 For Trustees of Second Ward—Archer Baker and Abe Cohn.

As no election was held last year the entire Board (or five Trustees) has to be elected this year.

No Place to Feed Them.

Supt. Whited is deserving of commendation for hurrying the Industrial Army through Nevada. With the exception of Reno there is no town this side of Oregon that could have fed them without effort, and the people here were not prepared for them. Whited concluded that the best thing to be done was to hurry them to their destination as soon as steam could carry them.—Journal.

Look in the Windows.

The south show window is full of the latest styles of fishing tackle and other sporting goods. The north window contains new books, music and art goods.

Among them are "A Bundle of Life" and "Princess of Paris;" also Sousa's new marches and a lot of Hawaiian songs. This refers to Cagwin & Noteware.

The Johnson Case.

The case of Mrs. Johnson vs. the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, will come up in the United States Court of Appeals in this city today. Clarke and Jones are attorneys for Mrs. Johnson, and Pluskay, Herrin and Baker will represent the company.

A Decided Improvement.

Mr.—So Harry is taking lessons on the violin of George Lamy. Is he making progress?
 Mrs.—Oh, yes; he's got so now that we can tell whether he is playing or tuning, and has only been taking lessons a week.
